

Year Ten English

Essential English vs General English

- Some university/Vocational and/or employment pathway
- Not an “easy option.” Rigour is substantial and requires complete engagement in class work and assessment.
- No pre-requisite
- University pathway
- Level of rigour is higher than for Essential English
- Pre-requisite for General English is a minimum B in Year 9.

Commonly asked questions.....

- What if I want to go to university but I don't get a B?
- Will the English that I do affect my other subject choices?
- What if I'm good at English but don't want to go to university?
- What are the expectations of a Senior English student?
- Is it hard to pass Senior English?

What if I need more information?

- Have a conversation with your English teacher
- Come and have a chat with me - Ms Camacho – HOD of English – Staffroom D